have any intellectual property or background technology to disclose in conjunction with this project³ & ⁴.

The Functional Test Coverage Assessment Project requires each participating company to commit to the following:

- Participating companies should expect to contribute 1 man month of time to the project per year.
- In the event project expenses are incurred, the costs will be shared evenly among participants. The project participants will amend this document with a listing of project expenses.

² NEMI Functional Test Coverage Assessment Project Statement of Work (SOW), Version 1.0.

⁴ Intellectual property or background technology disclosed in a declaration can only be used by the project participants for the purpose of research in connection with this project, and not for commercial purposes.

- The iNEMI Functional Test Coverage Assessment Project requires iNEMI membership. Therefore, according to iNEMI By-Laws, non-members who contribute to the project can only receive project results specific to their contribution or donation to the project. Other results of the project will be available once iNEMI member project participants make them public. The project will acknowledge non-members contribution or donations to the project by stating it in future project publications, presentations, and the final project report. In addition, non-member contributors' attendance and participation in the project's group meetings is limited to subjects concerning their contribution or donation, with an approval for attendance by a majority vote of iNEMI members who have signed this Project Statement.
- The project will adhere to the terms of the iNEMI Intellectual Property Policy for declaring, identifying, and disclosing background (confidential) technical information and background intellectual property.
- The data, information, and conclusions developed during this project will be available only to participating members of iNEMI who have formally joined this project by signing this Project Statement. All iNEMI members will be eligible to receive a summary report once it is released at the end of the project. The summary report will not contain data that the participants determine⁵ should only be shared within the project.
- If iNEMI or one individual would like to present data or information gained in this project to another company or companies, in technical paper(s), or in article(s), every member of the project team must be informed and a 2/3 majority is required for approval. The decision must be made during a regularly scheduled project meeting.
