have any intellectual property or background technology to disclose in conjunction with this project.^{3 & 4}

The iNEMI Medical Grade Components Reliability Standards Project requires each participating company to commit to the following:

- Participating companies should expect to contribute 1 man month of time to the project per year.
- In the event project expenses are incurred, the costs will be shared evenly among participants. It is estimated that such costs will not exceed $1,000 per company, for phase I of the project.

² iNEMI Medical Grade Components Reliability Specifications Project Statement of Work (SOW), Version 5.0

⁴ Intellectual property or background technology disclosed in a declaration can only be used for the purpose of research in connection with this project, and not for commercial purposes by the project participants.

- The iNEMI Medical Grade Components Reliability Specifications Project requires iNEMI membership. Therefore, according to iNEMI By-Laws, non-members who contribute to the project can only receive project results specific to their contribution or denotation to the project. Other results of the project will be available once iNEMI member project participants make them public. The project will acknowledge non-members' contribution or denotations to the project by stating it in future project publications, presentations and within the final project report. In addition, non-member contributors' attendance and participation in the project's group meetings would be limited to subjects concerning their contribution or denotation, with an approval for attendance by a majority vote of iNEMI members who have signed this Project Statement.
- The project will adhere to the terms of the iNEMI Intellectual Property Policy for declaring, identifying, and disclosing background (confidential) technical information and background intellectual property.
- The data, information, and conclusions developed during this project will be available only to participating members of iNEMI who have formally joined this project by signing this Project Statement. All iNEMI members will be eligible to receive a summary report once it is released at the end of the project. The summary report will not contain such data as the participants determine⁵ should only be shared within the project.
- If iNEMI or one individual would like to present data or information gained in this project to another company or companies, in technical paper(s), or in article(s), every member in this working group must be informed and a decision to allow this must be made during a normal working group conference call with an approval of a 2/3 project participant vote.
