have any intellectual property or background technology to disclose in conjunction with this project<sup>3 & 4</sup>.

Approval of this Project Statement is a two step process. The first signature verifies company participant, while the second approval acknowledges agreement to the specific tasks and contributions required from each participant, whether member or non-member.

The iNEMI Pb-Free Early Failure Project requires each participating company to commit to the following:

- Participating companies should expect to contribute a minimum of one man month of time to the project per year. Detailed resource commitments are outlined in the Statement of Work. The second signature below indicates agreement to fulfill the obligations outlined in Statement of Work Version #3.2.

<sup>1</sup> A 2/3 majority of iNEMI Pb-Free Early Failure Project participants must be in favor of admitting new companies after the initial enrollment period is over.

<sup>3</sup> As provided for in the iNEMI Intellectual Property Policy, if background technology or intellectual property is claimed, a Declaration of same must be provided, in writing, to the iNEMI Secretariat within 45 days of signing this agreement.

<sup>4</sup> Intellectual property or background technology disclosed in a declaration can only be used by the project participants for the purpose of research in connection with this project, and not for commercial purposes.

- In the event project expenses are incurred, the costs will be shared evenly among participants. It is estimated that such costs for this project will not exceed $3K per company.
- Any iNEMI member company or companies who provide test chambers and hardware to run the Thermal Cycling tests will not be required to provide additional funding for project expenses.
- The iNEMI Pb-Free Early Failure Project requires iNEMI membership. Therefore, according to iNEMI By-Laws, non-members who contribute to the project can only receive project results specific to their contribution or donation to the project. Other results of the project will be available once iNEMI member project participants make them public. In addition, non-member contributors' attendance and participation in the project's group meetings is limited to subjects concerning their contribution or donation, with an approval for attendance by a majority vote of iNEMI members who have signed this Project Statement. Any non-member participants who receive compensation for their contributions retain NO rights to the data generated by the project.
- The project will adhere to the terms of the iNEMI Intellectual Property Policy for declaring, identifying, and disclosing background (confidential) technical information and background intellectual property. Approval of this Project Statement by non-members constitutes acknowledgment of receipt of a copy of the iNEMI Intellectual Property Policy and agreement to abide by the articles set forth therein.
- The data, information, and conclusions developed during this project will be available only to participating members of iNEMI who have formally joined this project by signing this Project Statement. All iNEMI members will be eligible to receive a summary report once it is released at the end of the project. The summary report will not contain data that the participants determine<sup>5</sup> should only be shared within the project. The project will acknowledge non-member contribution or donations to the project by stating it in future project publications, presentations, and the final project report.
- If iNEMI or one individual would like to present data or information gained in this project to another company or companies, in technical paper(s), or in article(s), every member of the project team must be informed and a simple majority is required for approval. The decision must be made during a regularly scheduled project meeting.
- Control of the data and information gathered during the execution of this project will transfer to the iNEMI Secretariat 12 months after the conclusion of the project. After that period all requests for publication or transmission of data collected must be reviewed and approved by iNEMI. If the project is extended to include additional phases, the Project Team will continue to provide approvals for communication outside the Project Team as outlined in the bullet above.
